Local history curating • 08/2019 - 12/2024

Madurai local history group

I run a local history group in Facebook which boasts of having Dr. Balakrishnan ex IAS, Mr. Theodore Baskaran and other persons of repute in member list. Modelled on the lines of Madras local history group, I share Tamil literary events, verified Madurai local history, book reviews and Global Tamil engagements. I do this as a pastime activity to gain access to information first hand about the plethora of Tamil events happening both inside and outside of country. I also talk on the same in public events where I participate in my capacity of a speaker to shed light on what's happening around. Though it is a very simple activity, it has kept me in touch with Tamil literary scene and its developments in the most unconventional way. This activity of mine provided a roadmap to credible institution following in Tamil related events.
